Greetings

FROM THE MODERATOR'S CHAIR:

"McQueen of Edmonton!" What fidelity, courage and devotion; what patience, endurance and stability; what loyalty to the State; what service to humanity; what self-denying labors for the Church are covered by that phrase!

Through the four decades not only the Presbyterian Church but the whole Kingdom of God throughout Northern Alberta has felt the impress of one sturdy character—"McQueen of Edmonton". Long may his bow abide in strength! The loyal First Church honors itself and serves the Presbyterian Church in Canada by honoring thus its minister.

I can imagine nothing on which I can more confidently speak for the whole Church from ocean to ocean than in thus expressing my personal admiration and my best wishes for "McQueen of Edmonton".

W. LESLIE CLAY,
Moderator.

VICTORIA, B.C.

FROM REV. DR. BAIRD:

To have held the same position for forty years is itself a notable achievement, and when that position is an important one, and has been adorned and magnified, the achievement is much greater. Dr. McQueen has by personal worth and unselfish service won his way to the front rank in Alberta. We are glad to honour you, Doctor.

ANDREW B. BAIRD.

WINNIPEG, MAN.

FROM REV. DR. SCOTT:

To the Angel of the First Presbyterian Church at Edmonton write,—Thanksgiving for "all the way the Lord thy God hath led thee these forty years". The Leader of those years is ever the same; may the following of that Leader be ever nearer till "we shall be like Him for we shall see Him as He is".

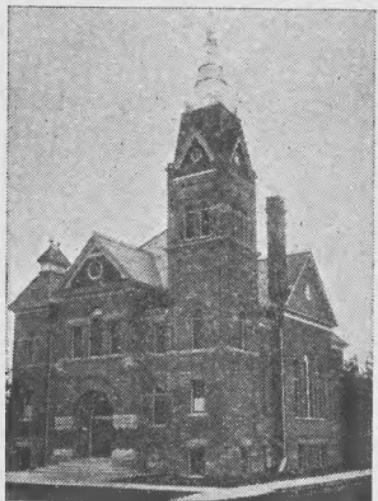

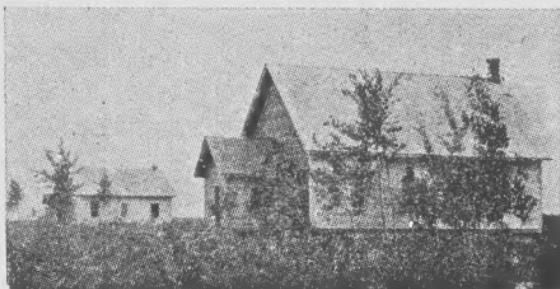

The influence of those years will live on till time shall end and will then be only beginning. May each successive ministry add its share to that stream of influence eternal flowing from your Church.

EPHRAIM SCOTT.

Kay, Hugh MacKay, Mrs. A. Omand, and J. A. Petrie. (Those whose names are underlined are deceased.)

Dr. Baird was succeeded June 27, 1887, by Rev. D. G. McQueen, whose ministry has continued without interruption since that date.

First Presbyterian Church was organized Nov. 3, 1881, by Rev. A. B. Baird, now Professor Baird of Manitoba College. The Charter Members were: G. A. Blake, Mrs. A. Goodridge, Mrs. P. Heiminck, Mrs. T. Henderson, Mrs. A. Hutchings, D. S. Mac-

Rev. D. G. McQueen, 1887

The first church stood on the site now occupied by the Manse, while the first school building in Edmonton occupied the adjacent corner.

The “Old Manse”

In 1901, a substantial brick building was erected on Jasper Ave., diagonally opposite the Hudson's Bay stores. This was superseded in 1912, by the present edifice, which was dedicated on June 2nd, of that year,—three days before the General Assembly met in it under the moderatorship of Dr. McQueen.

Mrs. McQueen came to Edmonton in the autumn of 1890, when the life of the congregation began to centre around the "Old Manse", shown on the opposite page.

*Rev. Thos. Tait, M.A., B.D.
Inducted as Colleague, Dec. 14th, 1926.*

To have enjoyed, even for the briefest term, the privilege of being yoked as ministerial colleague with a man of Dr. McQueen's calibre and quality, may entitle me to share in the chorus of praise that fittingly culminates so prolonged a period of devoted service in a field of such vast distances and peculiar difficulty.

Many chords of grateful memory are touched by the event of to-day, and testimonies of gratitude have no need to yield to the snare of adulation where eulogy has been so well deserved.

Dr. McQueen's robust piety, strength of conviction, sagacity of judgment, graciousness of friendship, and, not least, his remarkable buoyancy of nature which declines to grow old,—these, together with virtues that reflect the ideals of a true home and a beloved church, I, for one, rejoice to acclaim.

THOMAS TAIT.
